

Product Overview:

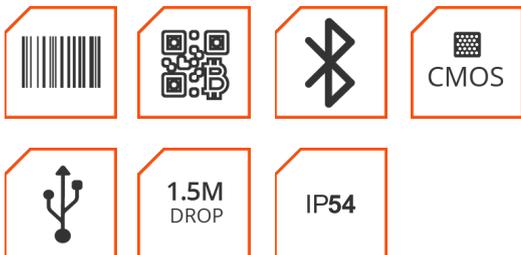

The BCX-9300 is reliable and a capable cordless scanners within its price range. It's built-in 2D scan engine is able to scan swiftly and accurately. The 9300 has also been designed to read seamlessly from smartphone screens, making it the ideal low cost solution for modern kiosks or ticketing stations. Users can operate the cordless 9300 allowing freedom of movement and easy operation. Up to 100m from its paired host

The BCX-9300 is also plug and play compatible right out of the box via a USB connection, making it easy to set up and get going within minutes. Compatible with Windows, Linux, Mac OS and Vista, the BCX-9300 is the perfect solution for businesses that require fast, dependable wire-free scanning without cumbersome base stations and connects easily direct to a bluetooth host.

Reasons to buy:

- * 2D Barcode scanner cordless Bluetooth.
- * Low cost scanner.
- * Plug and play USB connection plus dongled.
- * Compatible with Windows, Linux, Mac OS and Vista.
- * Reads from mobile phone screens.
- * Reads and transmits up to 100m from its host.

BCX- 9300

2D Bluetooth Handheld Scanner

Key Features:

Complete versatility

The BCX-9300 transitions between corded and wireless modes with a fluent ease. With the cable plugged in, it will open on corded mode and if the cable is removed, it automatically switches to Bluetooth wireless mode giving the user automatic freedom of movement.

High Performance scanning

The design of the BCX-9300 runs deeper than just the tough housing. Inside the built-in 2D scan engine provides flawless scanning of 1D and 2D codes as well as scanning from mobile screens with an efficient and effortless ease.

Low cost wireless scanning

In every aspect the BCX-9300 has been designed to offer ease of use, from the plug and play USB connection, to rugged reliable housing and topped off with the automatic transition from corded to wireless scanning. All this comes at an affordable price, making it a complete scanning solution for any business.

Built to take the knocks

If you are looking for peace of mind scanning in the toughest of environments then the BCX-9300 fits the post. Its impressive 2m drop resistance means you can work with confidence that it will handle those inevitable accident that come with harsh workplaces.

Ideal for...

Commercial applications - Retail - Warehouse - POS - Pharmacies